What are your primary concerns about the current use of this golf course?

- Cost of staying open in Austin, too much is closing down
- 1st golf course in Texas, it needs conserving
- Usually greens are in bad shape
- Stays a golf course in some capacity
- That it will get more expensive
- Entirely too many pedestrians, no one takes it seriously as a golf facility without a fence. Dog walkers and neighbors think it's their own personal park they don't have to pay for.

- Losing it
- I want it to stay a golf facility
- Want it to stay a 9 hole course
- Keep the golf course
- It not being a golf course
- That it won't continue
- Want it to remain a golf course
- Some jackass will want to make a lot of money off it
- That cost will get too high to stay open
- I still want to be able to walk and golf even if it's a par 3, but need to keep random pedestrians off

What are your primary concerns about the use of this space? (continued)

- That it may be going away. People are ignoring the intrinsic value of the course.
- I'm all about growth and whatever but keep it Texas.
